PROTECTION
IN WAR

Article of the Month

This month is Remembrance Day so we will have a focus on Article 38 - Children have the right to protection in times of war. If you are under 15, you should never have to be in an army or take part in a battle.

Remembrance and Article 38

Remembrance unites people of all faiths, cultures and backgrounds in honouring those who defend our democratic freedom and way of life.

The UK has a long tradition of marking Armistice Day, calling to mind the moment when fighting ceased at the end of the First World War, at 11.00am on the 11th November 1918.

Last Month's Learning...

Throughout October some classes across the school took part in Black History Month and researched key figures and events in Black History. They explored Article 2 - All children have rights without discrimination of any kind.
