MILNGAVIE READS

MILNGAVIE PRIMARY SCHOOL AND EARLY YEARS CENTRE READING NEWSLETTER

Please meet our new Reading Ambassadors who are excited to get started with lots of ideas to promote the benefits of reading. We are now working towards our Silver Reading Award with the help of pupils from p3-p7.

Thank you to parents and carers who completed the attitude to reading survey. We will share feedback in next month's issue.

From Mrs Kelly and the MPS Reading Ambassadors.

BOOK WEEK SCOTLAND

Milngavie Primary and ELC are participating in Book Week Scotland.

This is an annual celebration of books and reading that takes place across the country. Page 2 has all the details.

MILNGAVIE READS

We are hosting lots of exciting events during Book Week Scotland.

Please encourage your child to take part! This year's theme is HOPE - your story matters!

DROP EVERYTHING AND READ

(DEAR) When the bell rings everyone needs to pick up a book and read for 10 minutes!

Reading Dare

Please encourage your child to set a reading related dare or challenge during Book Week. The aim is to spread the message that reading can take many different forms. Reading dares will be issued electronically before Book Week.

Class Read-a-thon.

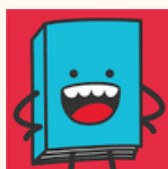

Everyone is encouraged to read for 10 minutes each day at home and count the number of pages read in total. This goes towards a class total. PRIZE for winning class!
