READING NEWSLETTER

It is so good to be back in school! Welcome to the return of our newsletter all about reading initiatives at MPS. Please meet our new Reading Ambassadors.

One of their first jobs is to report on our 'attitudes to reading' surveys. Thank you to parents and carers who completed the survey! We will share feedback in our next issue.

From Mrs Kelly and the MPS Reading Ambassadors.

We are a Reading School

SCHOOL LIBRARY

We are delighted to have unpacked and set up our school library in the atrium! Our Reading Ambassadors are thrilled and looking forward to checking out new books. A huge thank you to our volunteer, Kate Cameron, who helped to unpack and sort our extensive collection of books. Our pupils also enjoyed seeing her back at school.

UPCOMING EVENTS

MILNGAVIE READS

For the first time, Milngavie PS is entering a team to compete in the regional heats for the National Junior Reading Champions Quiz. The regional heats are open to school all across Scotland made up of four pupils from p5-7. What better way to use our fantastic knowledge about popular books! This online event is due to take place on 3rd November. Good luck to our team!

Ultimate Autumn Reading List

The darker nights are here, the weather is getting colder... it's time to curl up with a good book!

This list will be on your child's Learning Journals to help you and your child find a good book for Autumn.

FOR THE ADULTS

Scan this code for some seasonal reads previously nominated for the Booker Prize. The list details eight novels that could be the perfect companion for longer nights and colder days...

Reading Schools Week
16-20 November

This year Reading Schools Week will replace Book Week Scotland (which will now be in June 2027). In November 2026, we'll mark Reading Schools Week — a five-day extravaganza designed to celebrate the incredible activity taking place in Reading Schools across the country.

We will take part in 5 reading challenges during the week.

Bookbug and Read Write Count Bag Gifting Events

During Reading Schools Week, Primary 1, 2 and 3 will receive free gift bags filled with books and resources to inspire a lifelong love of reading, writing and counting.

Dates will be confirmed after the October Break
